June 8, 2009

Can you believe that it's the last week of school? These will be very special days!

We are very excited about today's pool trip! (The rain date is Wednesday, in case we need that.) Many thanks to the chaperones and to those of you who helped us fill out the menu!

Thank you for helping your child to prepare for last week's Speech Meet. It was so much fun to see and hear the progression of the speeches as each student injected personality and expression! I am SO proud of their accomplishments!

The end-of-the-year Honors Convocation will happen on Tuesday morning at 8:40. It's a special awards ceremony that you won't want to miss! I hope you can plan to join us!

I would like to reward the class on Wednesday afternoon with a Marble Party! The jar is full, and I have another "golden oldie" in my Disney collection! This time it will be "Gus", a truly funny story about a mule that plays football!

Sandy and I are sentimental as we think of our year with your children coming to an end. We have appreciated your love, encouragement, and support all year. Thank you so much for that. We have grown to love your precious children dearly, and it is hard for us to think of parting with them. Thank you for all you have done to make our lives wonderful this year. I pray that the Lord will bless you all with an extra-special summer with your family!

The Annual Meeting is tonight at 7 P.M. You won't want to miss it! I'll see you there!
